

RSA, NYASP & MHANYS PRESENT
WEBINAR 4 IN THE SPRING 2022 RURAL
MENTAL HEALTH SERIES

USING WHAT YOU ALREADY HAVE:
A WORKSHOP TO SUPPORT FACULTY

Dr. Jessica Hussar Boyle from the New York Association of School Psychologists (NYASP) will present this webinar to continue our goal of helping school-based mental health staff, administrators, and community members in supporting burned-out staff. Dr. Hussar Boyle will focus on translating strategies that you are already using with students to increase staff well-being. A workshop format will be used and breakout rooms will focus on implementing the strategies and interventions presented during the webinar to create plans of action that participants can take back to their schools, districts, and communities.

THURSDAY | APRIL 7, 2022
10:00AM - 11:00AM | ZOOM

Target Audience: Rural school administrators and school-based mental health staff

Cost: Free

Certificates of Attendance: Participants who attend the whole webinar will receive a certificate of attendance from NYASP.
